

Transportation Impact

ABOUT OUR COMPANY

Transportation Impact, LLC is founded on the principle of providing clients with the most competitive parcel contracts in the industry. Transportation Impact has an established track record of providing best-in-class services through:

- Gaining a deep understanding of client shipping characteristics, cost drivers, surcharges, hidden costs and business goals from on-site interaction
- Skillfully and diligently negotiating every aspect of our client's contract
- Monitoring carrier performance and agreement compliance
- Process optimization and integration

The consultants at Transportation Impact are comprised of highly successful former FedEx and UPS associates with over 100 years of collective industry experience. This immense experience negotiating contracts on behalf of carriers enables the Transportation Impact team to understand what clients are facing and, most importantly, the amount of savings that can be realized.

Transportation Impact prides itself on integrity, professionalism, diligence and execution. This approach extends to carrier interactions and has proven to be extremely important as Transportation Impact maintains and can even deepen current relationships between clients and carriers.

If you are interested in learning more about the potential savings that could be realized in your business, Transportation Impact provides a no-cost analysis to determine the savings you could achieve.

What Transportation Impact's clients say about their experiences:

"Maintaining our current relationship was very important to us. Transportation Impact's professionalism and effective communication preserved our relationship while improving rates and service." Moses Nakhle, CEO, Emtech Laboratories, Inc.

"To anyone that thinks that they can do this themselves, remember, the carriers are managing their margins, not yours! I highly recommend the TI [Transportation Impact] team." Chad Turney, President & CEO, Shadow Mountain, Inc.

"In these economic times, using Transportation Impact is a no-brainer." Reggie Barnes, CEO, Eastern Skateboard and Supply

Gary Falldin
Director of Sales

Throughout Gary's long and successful career in the shipping industry, he has amassed a wealth of knowledge and experience. After a 25-year career, Gary left UPS as a Region Division Manager and joined the Transportation Impact team. Leveraging this experience, Gary is able to negotiate superior discounts and uncover hidden fees, ensuring customers receive optimal business results.

"The foundation of our business is delivering immense value to our clients, and we have built a track record of achieving stellar results. These results have driven our business forward as our clients' satisfaction is a true testament to our performance and ability.
